

City of Eugene
 125 East 8th Avenue, 2nd Floor
 Eugene, Oregon 97401
 (541) 682-5010
 (541) 682-5414 (FAX)
www.eugene-or.gov

EUGENE CITY COUNCIL NEWSLETTER
 May 30, 2013

IN THIS EDITION

SUMMER RESOURCE GUIDE GOES BILINGUAL
CULTURAL SERVICES HOSTS POST-EVENT AND PRE-SHOW PARTIES AT HULT CENTER

AROUND THE CITY

Summer Resource Guide Goes Bilingual

Each year, Eugene Recreation produces Summer Resource Guide, a pamphlet listing many free and low-cost activities offered by the City and community partners over the summer months. It is distributed to middle school students in the Bethel and Eugene 4J school districts.

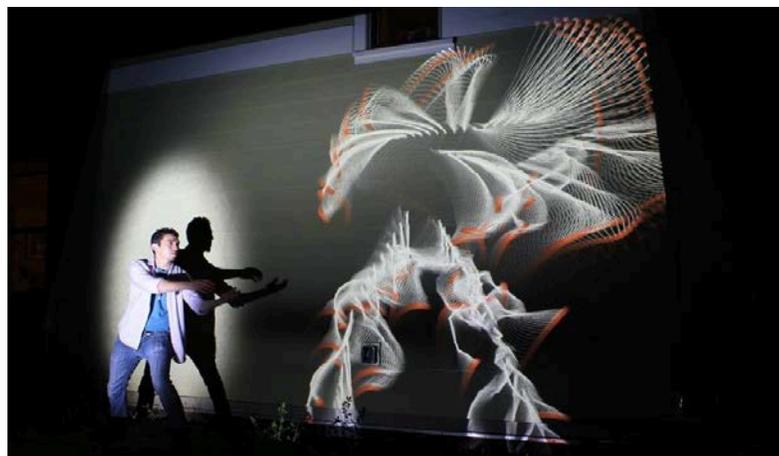

This year, Recreation is also producing a Spanish-language summer resource guide to help ensure that Eugene’s Latino community is also aware of the many fun and family-oriented activities provided this summer by the City of Eugene.

Both pamphlets include information about Recreation’s Fun For All, the free playground program presented weekdays in neighborhood parks, July 1 – Aug. 23, the City’s 100+ summer camps, special events at the City’s pools, Food For Lane County’s free summer lunch sites, schedules for Summer in the City Movies in the Park, Concerts in the Park, and Skateboard Competitions, Eugene Public Library’s Summer Reading program, and more.

For more information, contact Kathy Madison at 541-682-6342.

Cultural Services Hosts Post-Event and Pre-Show Parties at Hult Center

Harmonic Laboratory presents Four Corners, a dazzling sound, digital and dance presentation, on Friday and Saturday, May 31 and June 1, in the Soreng Theater. In one interpretation, the artist uses a kinetic sensor to track the user’s body in space to create fluid and reactive real-time animation. It must be seen to be believed! Tickets are on sale at HultCenter.org. for $25; college student and youth discounts are available.

Meet and mingle with the Harmonic Lab artists immediately after the show at the After Glow, a post-performance party in the Hult Center’s glowing lobby. Projections, sparkling beverages, a sneak peek at upcoming Summer in the City events and live music by the Eugene Contemporary Chamber Ensemble will make this an event not to be missed. The free After Glow party begins at 10 p.m. and is open to the public.

La Bamba and the Big Bopper’s Chantilly Lace are coming to the Hult Center on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 4 and 5. The Broadway musical Buddy: The Buddy Holly Story will be performed on the Silva Stage. This will be the first performance of this tour, which is always exciting for the performers, those backstage and the audience. Rock it 50's style at the pre-show party in the lobby with Hult Café's Malt Shop, serving 50's style drinks and featuring a local DJ spinning favorite 50's and Buddy Holly hits. Outside on the bricks, between the Hilton Hotel and the Hult Center, classic cars will be lined up and shined up for a free showing. Events begin at 5:15 p.m. with the show starting at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are on sale for $52.50 - $32.50. That'll be the day to have some fun!

For more information, contact Billie Moser, community events manager, at 541-682-6347.