

PROMOTE HUMAN RIGHTS IN EUGENE-- VOLUNTEER WITH THE CITY OF EUGENE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION!

The City of Eugene Human Rights Commission is conducting annual recruiting. Five Commissioner positions are available. Commissioner terms are for three years. The Commission meets the third Tuesday of every month. Volunteering with the Commission requires roughly ten hours per month of your time, dedicated to meetings, project work, and attendance at community events.

Applications and Supplemental Questions are due by Friday, September 18 available at:
<http://eugene-or.gov/boardsandcommissions>

The City of Eugene and Human Rights Commission are committed to:

- Ensuring human rights are a central part of every City program;
- Respecting and reflecting cultural and individual diversity;
- Fostering mutual understanding; and
- Promoting inclusiveness, justice and equity.

Interested applicants are encouraged (but not required) to attend an upcoming Human Rights Commission event to learn more about the Commission and its work. These meetings can provide further information about the Commission before you submit your application.

Introduction to the Human Rights Commission: Presentation and Panel Discussion

This is an introduction to our work, the Commission and its Committees, our proposed work plan, and a question and answer time with Commissioners.

Thursday, September 10

6:00-7:00

Atrium Lobby

99 W. 10th Street (across from the downtown bus station and library)

Human Rights Commission Meeting

Tuesday, September 15, 2009

5:30 -8:30

Saul Room, 3rd floor of the Atrium Building

99 W. 10th Street (across from the downtown bus station and library)

Please also consider a visit to the City of Eugene Equity and Human Rights Center and talk more with staff and volunteers about the Human Rights Commission activities, work plan and goals.

Equity & Human Rights Center

99 W. 10th Avenue, Suite 116

Eugene Oregon 97401

541-682-5177

<http://www.eugene-or.gov/hrc>

Thank you for your commitment to make Eugene a more inclusive and equitable community!

