Equity & Human Rights Center Vision Statement

The City of Eugene is committed to integrating our core values of equity, human rights, sustainability and neighborhood-oriented services to empower and enrich our city through strategic capacity building and engagement.

Diverse communities and groups make up our community. The City of Eugene values the contributions made by all and believes that the diversity among its people strengthens our services and organization.

The City recognizes its role in ensuring human rights and the dignity and worth of all people by equitably treating communities and employees, providing services fairly, consulting with communities and making sure everyone has opportunities to participate in decision-making.

To address this, the City will create an environment of equality in government and in services for all people regardless of race, ancestry, place of origin, color, ethnic origin, dis/ability, creed, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital and partnership status, age, family status, immigrant status, receipt of public assistance, political affiliation, religious affiliation, level of literacy, language and/or socio-economic status.

We strive to create positive changes in our workforce and communities to achieve equality of outcomes for all and the promotion of human rights to create a harmonious environment free from discrimination, harassment and hate.
