NEWS RELEASE
May 31, 2013
For further information, contact:
Melinda McLaughlin, APR, Public Information Director, at 541.682.5124

Register Your Youngster Now for Eugene Police Activities League Day Camp!
Only 19 spaces left!

SUMMARY: Space is still AVAILABLE for this active summer camps for youth between ages eight and 13. (Camp is June 17-21).

Don’t let today’s weather fool you! Summer is just around the corner!

Eugene Police Activities League (PAL) Camp, in partnership with Pacific Source, Selco, Oregon Credit Union, and UO

Eugene Police and its partners are offering an annual day camp for youth between the ages of 8 and 13. This unique summer camp is designed to offer opportunities for youth to have a wide variety of new experiences, from organized competitive sports and recreational activities to arts, educational and social skill development programs. In this incredible week of action-packed fun for kids, police officers will mentor youth and participate in games and activities. Middle school– and older elementary–aged youth will enjoy summer activities and structured and personal guidance in a safe, friendly environment.

EPAL has just 19 spots left and would like to fill them up. This year’s Eugene Police Activities League Camp (EPAL) runs from June 17 – 21, 2013. It will be held at Arts and Technology Academy, 1650 W. 22nd Ave, in Eugene Oregon. Interested parents can register their children online at www.eugene-or.gov/RecEnroll, or print and mail forms at: www.eugene-or.gov/EPDyouthcamps.

There is a $75 registration fee, and registration deadline of June 7.

###