Come by the donation “castle” at EPD’s front counter to donate to Princess for a Day event

Foster care can be difficult, and The Family for Every Child is doing a "princess party" in March, for girls in Foster care. They need donated dresses, tiaras, boas, fairy wings, wands, shoes, and jewelry to help make these girls day special.

EVENT LINK

Eugene Police is of the agencies arranging for a collection of items ahead of time to support an event to empower, encourage and enable girls age two through 18 who are particularly vulnerable in society. Through March 1 at noon, EPD will be collecting items in a ‘castle’ box in its lobby at 300 Country Club Road.

So... do any of your family or friends have a bridesmaids dress they wouldn't mind donating..... or, a cocktail dress worn a few years ago that is just too tight...... Or even dresses from pre-skinny days? It’s a great reason to clean out that closet and make room for this year’s outfits.

Any assistance would be greatly appreciated.
