Man Arrested for Assault 2 After Tavern Dispute
Police Seek Witnesses

Case No. 14-03447

At 8:44 Saturday night, March 1, 32-year-old Rodolfo Zambrano of Eugene and a 47-year-old Eugene man were in an argument inside the Horsehead Bar, 99 W. Broadway. Both were asked to leave. According to witnesses, once outside, the dispute continued.

According to bystanders, Zambrano shoved the victim and punched him in the face, which knocked him unconscious and caused him to fall and strike his head on the sidewalk.

Zambrano ran from the area and was spotted by Eugene Police Officers, who pursued him for a short distance before catching him and taking him into custody. The victim was transported to a local hospital with serious injuries. Zambrano was lodged for Assault in the Second Degree and a Parole Violation.

Detectives would like to speak with anyone else who may have witnessed the dispute. If anyone has information relevant to the case they are asked to call Detective Jennifer Curry at 541.682.5166.
