UPDATE:

Warren Chester Tucker was found this afternoon by Oregon State Police near Burns. Troopers received information that Tucker was headed in that direction, and when the highway was closed due to cattle crossing, the troopers recognized the vehicle and subject from the Attempt to Locate information and contacted the person in the vehicle, Warren Chester Tucker. He was transported to the hospital for evaluation and to await his family.

Missing Person
Case Number 14-15874

On September 17, 2014, around 9 a.m. Warren Chester Tucker, also known as, “Spud,” age 87, left the residence where he is living, in a 2006 Ford Focus, Licence #168CGG. Tucker was reported missing by his daughter, who said that he suffers from a medical condition, which increases the concern for the subject’s well-being. If anyone has information about his whereabouts, they are asked to contact the Eugene Police Department at 541-682-5111, or 9-1-1 as appropriate. A photograph of Tucker is attached to this news release.
