

Envision Eugene

E-Newsletter, November 2010 Edition

This month, Envision Eugene reports on our recent Fall Open House/Map Room event, and lets you know about upcoming opportunities to get involved in various local happenings.

- Public Open House/Map Room: On October 28th at the Downtown Public Library, over 150 people stopped by the Envision Eugene Map Room event to view maps, web tools, reports, and videos related to planning for our next twenty years. Many of the materials from the Map Room have been posted at www.envisioneugene.org in the Public Meetings folder. Check them out!
- Community Resource Group (CRG): The CRG met on October 12th and November 3rd to provide various community perspectives about our growth options. Meeting materials can be found at www.envisioneugene.org in the Community Resource Group folder, including maps, staff presentations and meeting notes. Additional meetings are planned for November 16 and December 7.
- Planning Commission/City Council Work Session: On November 22nd, Eugene's Planning Commission and City Council will hold a joint workshop on Envision Eugene. You can watch the webcast live here or attend the session at the McNutt Room in City Hall at 777 Pearl Street. The work session begins at 5:30 pm.
- Transportation Planning: Local transportation planning projects are continuing their public outreach. These include the Eugene Transportation System Plan, the Bicycle and Pedestrian Master Plan, and LTD's Long Range Transit Plan. In addition, there's news to know about the West Eugene EmX and the upcoming Transit Town Hall on November 9. Learn more here.
- Sustainable Eugene: In September, the Eugene City Council endorsed the Community Climate and Energy Action Plan. Find it here. This award winning plan contains recommendations that relate to transportation and land use, and are being folded into Envision Eugene.

We'll be doing some video projects around town soon; look for the videos on the website by the end of the month. If there's something going on in your part of town that we should know about, please contact me. Thank you for your continued interest in the future of our community!
