

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
City of Eugene, Oregon

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: National Public Works Week celebrates the vital role public works plays in connecting us all together; and

WHEREAS: Streets, paths, bridges, and public transportation keep us linked together throughout Oregon; and

WHEREAS: Parks, open spaces, clean water, and sanitation services keep us and the environment healthy; and

WHEREAS: Public works infrastructure, facilities and services are of vital importance to sustainable and resilient communities and to the public health, high quality of life and the well-being of the people; and

WHEREAS: National Public Works Week is a way to proudly salute and thank the public works professionals who are responsible for rebuilding, improving and protecting our transportation systems, water supply systems, sanitation systems, parks and open spaces, public buildings and other structures and facilities essential for our citizens; and

WHEREAS: The year 2019 marks the 59th annual National Public Works Week sponsored by the American Public Works Association.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Lucy Vinis, Mayor of the City of Eugene, Oregon, do hereby proclaim May 19-25, 2019, to be in the City of Eugene and urge all citizens to acquaint themselves with the issues involved in providing and maintaining our public works infrastructure and to recognize the contributions that our public works employees make every day to our quality of life.

“National Public Works Week”
